23. [] BRIEFING I confirmed with Bill Goold, in the office of Representative Donald Pease (D., Ohio), that we would brief Mr. Pease on 11 November, at 10:00 a.m., in his office, on the [] I then called [] at NSA, to confirm that we were going to brief Mr. Pease and said that I had suggested to Goold that our briefing of Mr. Pease might suffice for his purposes and therefore make it not necessary for him to get a briefing from NSA as well, although we would defer to Mr. Pease on that point. Foster expressed his thanks for our effort in this. I said that I would talk with him after our briefing to let him know how it had progressed.

24. [] LIAISON Lisa Libbey, in the office of Representative Michael Harrington (D., Mass.), called to ask for information on the "siting criteria" -- location -- for CIA offices in the U.S.; are the offices in Federal-business districts or in suburban-rural locations, what considerations enter into the selection of sites? Libbey said that the inquiry was a general one being made of Government agencies and that GSA had advised that 28 agencies do their own locating, CIA being one of them. She said that she is calling all 28 to find out what their criteria selection are. I advised [] of the DDA, of the request and at his suggestion talked with Jim McDonald, OL. McDonald agreed to make available an informal comment on how sites for offices carrying out the several different kinds of CIA functions in the U.S. are chosen after which we could better consider our response to Mr. Harrington's inquiry.
